MOST HAPPILY WEDDED.

Mr. C. D. Rudsell and Miss Carolyn Long Join Fortunes.

MANY GOOD WISHES FOLLOW THEM.

The wedding of Mr. Christopher D. Rudsell and Miss Carolyn Long was solemnized yesterday at 1:30 p. m. in the parlors of Mr. and Mrs. John Willett, five miles in the country, with whom the bride lived.

Without ostentation and amid simple elegance the ceremony was said.

The guests began arriving early, and delightful commingling was enjoyed till the old familiar strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March announced to the assembled guests the coming of the contracting parties. Miss Nannie Willett deftly played the piano, and to the measured beat of dulcet strains Mr. Rudsell, attended by his uncle, Mr. John C. Kackley, came first; then the bride, escorted by her Maid of Honor, Miss Mary Wilson of Cincinnati. Meeting in the center of the room the bride and groom faced God's appointed instruments with authority, both secular and Divine, who spoke the awe-inspiring words which linked two lives for future destiny—Rev. W. W. Hall of the Christian Church, and Rev. Hugh Searcey of the Baptist Church, short, eloquently and tenderly rendering the concluding blessing, brought upon Mr. and Mrs. Rudsell kisses and congratulations from a half hundred relatives and friends who had gathered as witnesses.

The parlor was festooned in cedar ropes, smilax and ivy, running from the corners to the chandelier; from their knotted center a huge bunch of virgin white chrysanthemums hung; over the mantle and piano great clusters of pink and chrysanthemums swayed from golden vases, while ivy and smilax made rude screens through which the delicately woven lace curtains peered; thus giving the green and white effect with the tint of carnation and glow of the fire breaking over the whole scene like the splendor of a morn in June.

The bride's dress was white organdie; the skirt made plain save two narrow ruffles of sheer tulle; the bodice was of the same material, interlaced from basque to stock with pearl white satin ribbon; the sleeves were to the elbow, ending in flaring cuffs to meet the bridal gloves. In her left arm she carried a massive bouquet of niphoteas, while enveloping her form the conventional veil gave the distinguishing feature to the beautiful girl who was thus arrayed for her espousal.

The Maid of Honor, Miss Wilson, wore a fetching toilet of white organdie, which, with her girlish sweetness and a huge bunch of pink roses, gave the finishing color to as pretty a scene as one might wish to look upon.

The presents were of a varied character and from many friends, thus revealing the affection in which the contracting parties were held. Did space allow we might mention them. In passing, a check for $300 came from the groom's parents, with a beautiful gold piece from his brother, J. Barbour, and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell drove to this city and took the 3:25 train for a few days in Cincinnati. When they return their friends will find them at home with Colonel and Mrs. M. C. Russell, East Third street.

Mrs. Josephine Keller, Mr. Hord Long and Miss Wilson accompanied the bridal party to Cincinnati.

THE MODERN LITTLE

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

The total number of domestic reindeer in Alaska June 30th, 1900, was 3,462, of which 1,092 are the property of the Government.

A shipment of 100,000 young peach-trees from Georgia nurseries, bound for Cape Colony and Natal, South Africa, will be made soon.

Kentucky's total vote for President in 1896 was 436,061; in 1900, 462,221, or an increase of 26,160. This is the largest vote ever cast in Kentucky.

The diamond tooth craze seems to be increasing, and a New York dentist declares he simply piled up orders during his stay in the French capital.

Corn is so plentiful in the vicinity of Chelsea, I. T., that the farmers are letting it rot in the fields. Twenty cents a bushel is all they can get for it.

Both Houses of the Alabama Legislature have passed a bill providing for a popular election to decide whether a Constitutional Convention shall be held for the restriction of the Negro vote.

William N. Jackson, Secretary of the Union Railway Company, and the oldest man in active railroad service in the United States, both in years and point of service, died a few days since at Indianapolis.

The practice of oiling roads to keep the dust down has begun in California a few years ago, and is extending to several parts of the state. The dry season is so long that the idea of obtaining dustless roads is naturally attractive.

Ice racing on the Hudson is to receive unusual attention during the coming season. One craft that has just been turned out will be a marvel in its way. It will carry 613 square feet of canvas and will yet be so light that four men can easily lift and handle it.

There are in the State Penitentiary at Ft. Leavenworth, Kas., forty prisoners awaiting the Governor's signature to their death warrants. No capital punishment has ever been inflicted there, and no Governor of that state has ever signed a death warrant.

The Chickasaw Indians are dancing the stump dance near Erie, in the Indian Territory, to ward off the evil spirits. Hundreds are watched closely for fear that the dance may end in disturbances which would prove dangerous to settlers in the vicinity of the red men.

Five remarkable canals were completed in the old world during this year. They were the one from the Cattegat to the Baltic; from the Thames to Fenny Stratford; the Buckingham, the Grand Trunk and the Peak Forest canals. The act for the Grand Surrey canal was also passed.

Many epidemics of plague are believed to have been traced to rats, yet in other localities, and markedly in Glasgow, the rats have not been found infected by plague, either before or after the outbreak. It is by the vermin in the rat's coat that infection is probably conveyed to man.

Whale fishing is not extinct in the United States, but it is gradually and slowly becoming so. From 1850 to 1875 the annual product of the American whale fisheries fell from 100,000 barrels of sperm oil to 42,000, of whale oil from 300,000 to 35,000, and of whalebone from 5,000,000 pounds to 400,000.

There is not much show for Hawaii for statehood. The registered vote of the island is only 11,000.

During the past year the state of Pennsylvania has purchased more than 100,000 acres of land to be used as a forestry reservation. The policy of using land that is not adapted to agriculture for the purpose of timber culture has been adopted by both Pennsylvania and New York.

Mrs. Abbie Sage Richardson, dramatist, poet, literary critic and translator, died in Rome recently. She was the widow of the late Albert Deane Richardson, newspaper man and author, correspondent of The New York Tribune during the Civil War, and afterward an Editor on that paper.

The Russians have discovered a hitherto unknown Republic, called Chapignon, on the upper reaches of the river Sungari, in Manchuria. The Republic was founded by a community of 10,000 persons at the beginning of the century, and possesses a complete administration of laws and trade.

It is an interesting fact that among 600,000 passengers carried only 206 persons lost their lives on steamboat vessels within the jurisdiction of the United States during the last fiscal year, of whom 44 were passengers and 162 members of the crews. During the same year there were 383 boiler explosions on land, which killed 238 persons and wounded 456 others.

A marriage law is to be presented at the next session of the Wisconsin Legislature providing among other things that a board of medical examiners be organized and maintained by the state, and that no license shall be granted to persons contemplating marriage, unless they shall have received from the board a certificate setting forth that they are free from insanity, consumption and tainted blood.

With the exception of the bison (American buffalo) all varieties of game in the Yellowstone National Park, including antelope, bear, beaver, coyotes, deer, elk, moose, sheep and mountain lions, are increasing, notwithstanding that the antelope range in winter over the North boundary and the elk in the fall over the South boundary, where many are killed. The bison number about thirty.

Just previous to the recent election a Tennessee Editor foolishly ventured on a forecast of the coming events, and invited his readers to watch the result and see how far he missed. In his latest issue he manfully owned up as follows: "We are now able to state we missed it by exactly the space between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans East and West and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico North and South."

$1,000 Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurness of Willis Creek Coal Co., Buffalo, O., writes: I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain. Other medicines only gave relief. After taking Foley's Kidney Cure the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust, like fine stones, etc., and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. Foley's Kidney Cure has done me $1,000 worth of good. J. Jas. FURS.

The warm Searf and Muff would be welcomed by any woman as an addition to her wardrobe and doubly prized when received as a Christmas gift. Add a little money to your original price and buy only high grade furs. The difference between good and poor furs is this—when you put money into poor furs they last a season but after that—what have you? Whereas good furs last for years if properly cared for. Today women are wearing furs that belonged to their grandmothers. Good furs can be remodeled countless times. Here are some fluffy beauties that promise generous warmth in the face of biting blasts. Stylishly made, perfect in every detail.

Genuine Beaver Searf, 8 tails and pretty chain fastening, $19.

Genuine Stone Marten Searf, 8 large tails, very handsome, $22.

Beautiful Stone Marten Collarette, lined with heavy brown satin, trimmed in handsome tails, $35.

Beautiful Black Marten Searfs in two sizes, $18 and $12½.

The ladies of Mason declare our line of furs to be the handsomest ever shown in Maysville. No need to go to foreign markets when here at home you can select the best.

The holiday rush is on. We'll try to take good care of you right up to Christmas Eve, have engaged extra help, will keep open every night next week, etc., but, do all we can, buying is easier now than it will be later. So come today.
